Kensington Church's Response to the COVID-19 Situation:

Clinton Township

May 21

Encouragement from Chris

We are in the midst of tough times. If you are feeling discouraged, overwhelmed, or forgotten by God, Chris Zarbaugh, Kensington's Clinton Twp. Lead Pastor, has an encouraging message from Psalm 77. "The same God who has delivered you in the past will continue to deliver you in this season." God is always faithful! Watch here.

Jump In: Virtual Groups

If you are craving community, we have a variety of virtual groups to help you connect and grow. We're so thankful technology allows us to engage with others from the comfort of our homes. Click here to explore groups for men, women, couples and singles. Many groups are new, so this is the perfect time to jump in!

For Bible study content and inspiration, check out RightNow Media for free resources.

Kkids & Students News

Kkids | It's Pineapple Mayhem time! Children can play games, participate in challenges, earn points, and win prizes throughout the month of May. Find out more on the Kkids Facebook page and Clinton Twp. group page. Kkids children are continuing to discover all that happened to Jesus and His followers after the resurrection. Click here for teaching content, memory verses, and discussion questions.

Students | Our Student Ministry team has created many ways for middle school and high school students to connect and grow during this quarantine. Virtual small groups, interactive morning devotionals, creative video teaching, and online games can be found here. Contact Collin with questions.

Blood Drive: June 17

Help save a life by donating blood. The Red Cross follows the highest standards of safety precautions, and volunteer donors are the only source of blood for those in need. Kensington's Clinton Twp. campus is hosting a Red Cross Blood Drive on Wednesday, June 17. Register here. Interested in volunteering to help facilitate the blood drive? Contact Vel.

We Want to Hear from You

Have you taken it yet? We value your opinion, so it's really important to us to hear from you during this COVID-19 season. Please take this quick, anonymous survey which will take less than five minutes and would be a huge help to us. Thank you in advance for providing us this valuable feedback that will help us make informed decisions for the future of Kensington. Click here.
