How To Take A Hit | Week 5

This Weekend: Losing with Dignity

What if the most destructive thing isn't the hit itself but the way we hold onto the pain? Join us for the fifth and final week of our series, How To Take A Hit, as we look at the rollercoaster life of Joseph – slave, prisoner, ruler, rescuer – who repaid evil with...good (for real). Streaming this weekend? We're taking communion, so have your elements close at hand.

If you're joining us for an in-person service, please don't forget to reserve seats! Our ticketing system is just about effortless and helps ensure that we're able to maintain safe physical-distancing guidelines. Reserve a seat for each person in your party on our website.

A Year End Christmas Gift

When you make a Year End Christmas Gift to Kensington, you're making an impact on the lives of thousands – including people who sit down the row from you during services and those who live halfway around the globe. Kensington's Help Bank and My Covid Response, funded by your generous giving, allowed us to offer assistance in many forms to people in our community during this pandemic. Thank you for helping us reach the [one] with the hope and love of Jesus. Watch the videos and give a gift at kensingtonchurch.org/gift.

Coffee Convo: Advent Season

Advent is the season of waiting and preparation leading up to Christmas and the celebration of Jesus' birth. Joel Leipprandt, Lead Pastor of our Traverse City campus is taking us on an Advent journey during 9am Coffee Convo on Wednesdays. Join us on Facebook Live, beginning Wednesday, November 25, as we give ourselves a time and space to savor the beauty and the joy of this season.

Faith and the Family: Raising Godly Girls | Dec 1

As parents, we want nothing more than to protect our girls from societal pressures and challenges. Our prayers for wholeness and protection of their tender hearts are at odds with the destructive messages about female body image, identity, and value.

Join us online on Tuesday, December 1 at 8:30pm for this third Faith and the Family event: Raising Godly Girls. Free registration here.

Upcoming Series: Foundations | Dec 6-20

The Advent season teaches us how to look at the past with renewed excitement. Likewise, we're jumping into yesteryears this December with the series, Foundations. We'll explore the beginning of Kensington, the way God grew this community, and hear inspiring takeaways from each of the founding couples. Don't miss this chance to reflect and celebrate with us God's faithfulness to Kensington Church.
